President's Message

Pauline Marx, City and County of San Francisco

GFOA Standing Committee

In April I wrote about our opportunity to influence the Governmental Accounting Standards Board by weighing in on how GASB sets its agenda and whether the agenda setting process has the proper amount of transparency. Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) has played an important role in our profession's continuing dialog with GASB. I want to encourage your participation in this dialog and a good place to start is to join one of the GFOA committees...Continue Reading

Executive Director's Message

Melissa Dixon, CAE

I hope you are all having a wonderful summer! In my house, summer is quickly coming to a close, as the kids go back to school on August 7. When did this change? When I was a kid, we didn't go back to school until mid-September. It's a wonder our parents managed to deal with us unoccupied children for three whole months... Personally, I'm grateful for the earlier start date, as my kids were bored and at each other's throats within a week of their last school day back in June...Continue Reading

Not If, But When

It's been around a long time, and it's not going away any time soon. The trouble is, most organizations don't talk about it until it becomes a problem. It's a good guess that top management at the small City of Dixon, Illinois didn't take much time to discuss or evaluate the risk of fraud in their municipality....Continue Reading

SEC's Probe Into Bond Disclosure Compliance Puts Bond Issuers on Alert

On July 29, 2013, the Securities Exchange Commission issued a press release announcing that they charged West Clark Community Schools in Sellersburg, Indiana, and Indianapolis-based municipal bond underwriter City Securities Corporation with falsely stating to bond investors that the school district had been properly providing annual financial information...Continue Reading
